

Promotional Materials 23-2C

This document brings together the promotional materials sent to be used during the 2nd cycle of 2023.

These are grouped by brand, indicating the main message of each one and the designated medical target. The guides for each literature can be found in the respective course, in Bial Academy Platform.

The materials were sent according to the portfolio of each country.

If there are brands or materials that don't match your country, please ignore them.

Thanks.

BETTER TOGETHER
